SCOTT AND AMUNDSEN REACH SOUTH POLE

BOLD THIEF STEALS ST. CAR

Holds Up O. T. Men and Races Trolley Against Mounted Policeman

Affair Takes Place in Lonely Spot; Bandit Leaves Car and Escapes

Working with the daring and careful strategy that has characterized half a dozen street car holdups in Piedmont and Oakland, a bandit who is believed to be the man who terrorized the foothill district some months ago and for whom a reward of $1000 was offered, last night held up the crew of a Grand avenue car and made his escape by stealing the car and running it at breakneck speed almost a mile.

The footpad took many chances of being captured and escaped only after a sensational race between the electric car he operated and Mounted Policemen Cecil Hitchcock, who saw the car apparently running away, and gave chase, to be on hand to give aid in case of an accident. The bandit, in his strange chariot, outdistanced the mounted policeman, and when Hitchcock arrived at Twentieth and Webster streets the robber had disappeared.

It is thought he took a Key Route to San Francisco, but despite the theory special posse of police were kept patrolling the streets in the neighborhood for two hours after the robbery last night.

HELD UP IN CANYON

The holdup occurred shortly after 9 o'clock at the terminus of the Grand avenue line, which is in a canyon among trees and an ideal place for the operations of a highwayman. The bandit held up the motorman and conductor of Grand avenue car No. 135 at Perry street, taking $17.40 from the latter, and then ordering the two from the car at the point of his revolver, threw on the current and drove away down the hill for over ten blocks into the heart of the city.

The man got on the car at Fourteenth street and Broadway. He rode to the end of the Grand avenue line. At the terminal the man walked to the other end. Conductor H. F. Geney of 1227 East Sixteenth street, walked to the front end of the car and asked the man in the gray overcoat to get on. He handed Geney a Grove-street transfer and covered him with a large revolver.

The motorman, Harry Soule of 1034 East Fifteenth street, started to interfere when the robber turned the revolver on him.

"Both of you throw up your hands," he commanded, "or I'll blow your heads off."

Both men threw up their hands. The robber demanded the money Geney had in his coin holder. Geney handed him the receptacle and the robber emptied it into his pocket.

MINERS ARE RETURNING TO WORK

Big Coal Strike in England Shows Sign of Breaking

Men Out in Other Industries, However; Trouble in Germany

LONDON, March 7.—The first sign of a break in the coal strike comes from North Wales, where the employees of some of the smaller mining companies have reopened negotiations with the owners.

Some of these mines are worked by non-unionists. Others, however, have been operated heretofore by union men.

While the prospects of a settlement of the coal dispute appear somewhat brighter today conditions in other industries are becoming worse every hour. The number of discharges of workmen from other employment is increasing everywhere and many cases of great distress prevail.

ANOTHER STRIKE THREATENS

BERLIN, March 7.—A general strike in the Westphalian coal districts on March 11 now is regarded as a certainty. The leaders of the Christian trades unions, who are bitter rivals of the Socialist workmen's organizations, continue to oppose a strike, but advices indicate that a

Woodruff Predicts Victory for Taft

Declares President Will Get 80 of 90 New York Delegates

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Timothy Woodruff of New York, former state Republican chairman, predicted today that President Taft would get 80 of the 90 New York delegates to the national Republican convention. Woodruff was a guest at the White House over night.

Four Miners Killed In Explosion of Gas

Diamond Vale Coal Mine, 150 Miles From Vancouver, the Scene of Disaster

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 7.—A gas explosion in the Diamond Vale coal mine in Nicola, 150 miles from Vancouver, has killed four men. Ten others are in the mine, and their fate is unknown.

RUEF MUST RETURN TO PRISON

Fails in Efforts to Delay His Trip Back to San Quentin

Rumor That an Appeal Would Be Made to Parole Board Is Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—One last effort on the part of Abraham Ruef to prevent his being forced to return to hard labor at San Quentin, where he has yet thirteen years of his sentence to serve, proved fruitless this morning. Attorney Bart Schlesinger applied to Judge Lawlor at 11 o'clock for an extension of time for the former boss, but the court refused and at 3:30 this afternoon Ruef must once more take the heart-breaking journey to state prison.

Ruef spent yesterday with his family and last evening his counsel visited him and the hope was expressed that he might be allowed to remain until Saturday, when all the indictments against him come up in Superior Judge Dunne's court. There is a motion to dismiss and his counsel had in mind the introduction of several additional motions, in case the court failed to quash the eighty odd indictments against Ruef.

TALKS WITH LAWLOR

Ruef was brought in from the county jail at 10 o'clock today and Attorney Schlesinger, after a moment's conference with him, left for Judge Lawlor's department. He had a personal talk with the judge, but the latter declared that he did not believe he had authority to grant an extension of time after he had once ordered Ruef taken across the bay. He suggested that he had been fairly liberal and had allowed Ruef to see his family frequently. He admitted that he would again permit the convicted man to see his relatives before taking the boat for the penitentiary this afternoon.

Schlesinger has not abandoned hope and unless the plan is changed, will endeavor to have Ruef brought over here again so as to be present in court on Saturday.

MOTIONS TO MAKE

"If Judge Dunne does not dismiss the indictments, we will have some motions to make," declared Schlesinger, "and if it is possible to do so we will try to get Ruef brought over here to be present in court. The request Judge Lawlor today was for a lengthening of time so that Ruef could be present in court on Saturday."

It was first thought that Ruef desired to appear before the parole board of the state, which meets tomorrow, but this is denied by his counsel. He has already served a year of his term and so is entitled to consideration by the parole officers, but it is believed that he cannot be released unless the indictments pending before Judge Dunne are wiped from the calendar.

At any rate Ruef must bid sorrowful farewell to his aged mother for the second time today as the journey to the prison and to convict's stripes must again be gone through with.

Cup for Dead Aviator Given to His Sister

Miss Matilda Moissant Receives Gift From Central American Colony

NEW ORLEANS, March 7.—The handsome silver loving cup, which was to have been given to Aviator John B. Moissant on December 31, 1910, by the Central American colony here, but the presentation of which was prevented by the aviator's tragic death a few days before, was given today to Miss Matilda Moissant, his sister. The presentation was made by General Francisco Altschul. Miss Moissant will make flights here this week.

Senators Amend Arbitration Treaties

WASHINGTON, March 7.—With final action on the arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France definitely fixed for late this afternoon, the Senate voted, 42 to 40, to strike out clause 3 in both treaties. This clause was attacked on the ground that it delegated the Senate's constitutional treaty-making powers to the joint high commission and thereby bound the Senate.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon offered an amendment providing that the treaties should not authorize admission of alien into the United States or into educational institutions of the states. It was adopted, 40 to 38.

MORE RAIN COMING, SAYS THE WEATHER OBSERVER

Recent Downpour Saves Crops Threatened by Long-Continued Drought

SANBORN RAIN GAUGE.

Oakland's rainfall in inches:
Last 24 hours.....	.05
Season to date.....	7.94
Last season to date.....	26.90

There have been slight showers in this vicinity today, alternating with the brightest sunshine. The forecast is for still more rain. The rainfall has done incalculable good in the Sacramento valley and in the Santa Clara region. Reports from the grain regions stated that the crop is saved, even if but little more rain should fall this season.

Red Bluff had 1.20 inches to her credit at 5 o'clock yesterday, Sacramento .20 and Eureka .50.

In the central portion of the state there was a fairly large downpour. San Luis Obispo having .52 of an inch and Fresno .44. Los Angeles recorded .40, slightly less than in San Francisco. San Diego fared better, .50 of an inch falling there.

As for snow in the Sierras, there was 54 inches of it at Summit last night, with more to come. In Nevada both rain and snow were falling, while wind observations along the north coast report a forty-four-mile breeze outside the entrance to Puget sound.

$200,000 in Gems Stolen From Gladys Vanderbilt

NEW YORK, March 7.—Cablegrams from Buda Pest told New Yorkers today of the robbery of jewels worth $200,000 from the residence of Countess Szchenyi, Miss Gladys Vanderbilt. It is said, however, that the jewels were afterwards recovered by detectives in a motor garage.

London to Paris Flight Made in Three Hours

PARIS, March 7.—Henri Salvey, a French aviator, arrived at Issy-les-Moulineaux, a suburb of Paris, in his monoplane today, having traveled from London without a stop. He covered the distance of about 222 miles in 2 hours and 57 minutes. Salvey said that having urgent business to transact in Paris and seeing that the London-to-Paris train and steamboat service was affected by the coal strike, he had decided to make the voyage through the air in spite of the unfavorable weather. During his trip from London he navigated his monoplane by the compass. He traveled at an average height of 6000 feet and generally was above the clouds, only occasionally catching glimpses of the land or sea. Salvey's extraordinary speed under the circumstances is explained by the fact that his machine was pushed along by a strong breeze from the northwest, which will be unfavorable to his progress on his return trip to London, on which he started this afternoon.

Strikes Girl, Blows Self To Pieces With Dynamite

DANBURY, Conn., March 7.—George Mead, a coachman for the Rev. Frank Hartfield, rector of the Episcopal Church at Brewsters N. Y., made a murderous attack on the two daughters of the rector and then blew himself to pieces with dynamite. According to the story received here today, Ruby Hartfield, 20 years of age, and Amy, her sister, 21, carried some tools yesterday to Mead, who

Dogs, Ponies and Motor Sled Aid Englishman in Trip of Discovery

COPENHAGEN, March 7.—The Social Demokrat publishes a dispatch from Christiania, which says that a private individual in that city has received a telegram from the Fram expedition stating that Amundsen reached the South Pole.

Scott at South Pole

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, March 7.—Captain Raold Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, stated today that Captain Scott, the British explorer, had reached the South Pole.

No Word for Haakon

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Mar. 7.—King Haakon of Norway, who was to have received the news from Capt. Raold Amundsen if he had been successful in attaining the South Pole, has not received any communication from the explorer. King Haakon's adjutant said that should private news arrive from Capt. Amundsen to the king it would place the king in a somewhat awkward position, as he might think himself unjustified in making it public, and thus spoiling Capt. Amundsen's chances of selling his story.

Amundsen Reports

LONDON, March 7.—The first message with the definite statement from Amundsen that Scott had reached the South Pole was received from Wellington, New Zealand, by the Daily Express.

Mrs. Scott, the wife of the British explorer, has not received any direct news of her husband's reported success. She said this morning that she was unable to imagine how Captain Amundsen would know, saying: "I hope the news is true, but at present I do not dare believe it."

Lieutenant Evans, the secretary of the Scott expedition, authorized the statement that, no news whatever of Captain Scott's success had reached the local headquarters beyond the newspaper dispatches.

The cable dispatches from New Zealand announcing that Captain Scott had found the South Pole, came as a startling climax to the race which five explorers of different nationalities have been making to reach this last extremity of the undiscovered portions of the globe.

SCOTT WELL EQUIPPED

Captain Robert Falcon Scott started on his expedition from Port Chalmers, New Zealand on November 29, 1910. He was well equipped for this dash for the farthest south having made a previous expedition under the direction of the Royal Geographical Society.

At that time he attained a record of 83 degrees 31 minutes, which remained the record up to the time of Lieutenant

Wife Hires Husband; Gets Him Out of Jail

RALEIGH, N. C. March 7.—Mrs. P. H. Thrash today hired her husband from the Buncombe county officials, paying $500 in cash for his services for one month. She gets him for the thirty days he had been sentenced to serve in jail for violating the local prohibition law. Thrash, who is wealthy, will also pay a fine of $2000.

One Killed, Two Hurt In Texas Street Fight

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 7.—Maurice Ball, employed by a local cotton brokerage concern, was killed and Oscar Thompson and J. S. Phillips, bystanders, were slightly wounded last night in a fight between Ball and Oscar Meyer on a crowded street.

Meyer is auditor of the Fort Worth and Denver City railway. Ball and his wife were recently divorced. Ball, it is alleged, charged the railroad man with responsibility for his domestic troubles. The shooting followed. Meyer was arrested and released under bond.

Bullets Merely Glance Off This Youth's Skull

MORSE CAVE, Ky., March 7.—After three unsuccessful attempts to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head, Richard Jones, a 20-year-old negro, came up in disgust, fired up his head and returned to work. Jones said he "wanted to know what it would feel like in another world." In this speculative mood, he placed the muzzle of a small calibre revolver to his forehead and pulled the trigger. The ball tore a furrow through his scalp and glanced off his skull. He shot himself on the side of the head with a like result and then aimed the muzzle against his cheek and fired. The ball passed through both cheeks.

FAILS TO LEAVE WILL.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—The public administrator today took charge of the estate of Christopher Kitzopp, steward and timekeeper of the St. Francis Hotel, who died about a month ago. It was generally supposed that Kitzopp had left his property, consisting of $5000, to Manager James Wood of the hotel. No will has been found.

His father was recently pardoned from state prison without a word of criticism in which he was implicated.

Darrach is at present in New York and his wife is believed to be either in Hopkinton, N. H., or with her brother, Robert W. Clark, at Holyoke, Mass. Darrach declares that his business took him so much to the Pacific coast several years ago that he decided to move to San Francisco and did so in 1909. His wife got as far as Denver, but refused to come further.

SISTER OF SLAIN MAN IN COURT

Mrs. J. A. Johnson Sobs at the Preliminary Hearing of Harry Prescott.

Her nerves torn and racked by the experience of listening to testimony concerning the death of her brother, Ralph Thompson, at the preliminary hearing of Harry Prescott, charged with Thompson's murder, Mrs. J. A. Johnson broke into tears in the courtroom this morning when the blood-stained garments worn by the young man on the night of the shooting in the Prescott home were produced in evidence by Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent. Mrs. Johnson was seated beside the aged and broken-hearted father of the murdered youth in the courtroom and had been engaged in comforting him.

Mrs. Johnson was not called as a witness in the case, but had come to the courtroom merely to care for her father, Louis Thompson, who appeared as the complaining witness against Prescott.

Sensational testimony was anticipated in the hearing, when Judge A. L. Frick, appearing for the defendant, demanded that the courtroom be cleared of all but court officers and those concerned in the case. Judge Aaron Turner, sitting for Judge Mortimer Smith, who is ill, asked the reason for the request, but Frick explained that he did not have to give the reason, as it was his legal right. The request was complied with.

The testimony brought no new light to bear upon the shooting of Thompson by Prescott when he found the young man, his shoes and coat removed, in the bedroom of Mrs. Prescott, his wife, on the night of February 23, at 1842 Adeline street. The facts as to the action of Prescott in concealing himself in the bungalow which had formed his home in Adeline street, of his long vigil waiting around for the return of his wife, of his rage when he saw young Thompson about to embrace Mrs. Kate Prescott in the bedroom of his own house, of the shot which killed Thompson, and of Prescott's surrender and statement to the police. All this was told in detail by Captain Charles Beck George Ramsden, a neighbor; Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen and Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent.

PRESCOTT CALM.
Through it all, Prescott, clean shaven and well-groomed, sat by his attorney without showing any perturbation or nervousness. Only once, during the testimony of Louis Thompson, the father of the man he had killed, did he shade his eyes and a slight quiver about the lips told of emotion restrained and held in check with difficulty.

Hearing was continued till tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when it will be resumed, as all the witnesses were not available today. It is thought that Judge Frick, for the defendant, will reserve his battle for Prescott's life and liberty for the trial before the Superior Court. Mrs. Prescott has not been placed on the stand and neither has George Carson, the close friend and confidante of the dead man. Frick anticipates using these two witnesses to build up the fabric which will permit his making his appeal to the unwritten law as a justification in some measure for the act of his client. But this morning he declared that he would put on only two more witnesses at the preliminary hearing.

The most sensational testimony to be developed will be elicited, it is thought, from George Carson and Mrs. Maude Clarke. While the body of Ralph Thompson, yet warm, was lying in blood on the floor of the bedroom of Mrs. Prescott at 1842 Adeline street, Mrs. Clarke had rushed to the telephone and called up George Carson, the roommate of the dead man.

"You must get those letters from Kate to Ralph quick," Mrs. Clarke told the young man. "They are in the room and you must find them before the police come."

Carson has admitted that Mrs. Clarke came to the room, obtained the letters and left. Carson also admitted that the letters in question were correspondence between Mrs. Prescott and Thompson. What has become of the letters is not known, but it is understood that Judge Frick will rely on this testimony, with that of the defendant and the witness to what took place at the Prescott home on the night of February 23, when the shooting took place, to make good his appeal to the unwritten law, which a rescot has sought to justify his act.

Louis Harte Held for Failing to Provide for Wife and Children.

On the testimony of Mrs. Mary Harte of East Oakland that her husband had not provided in any way for his two minor children for the past two years, Louis Harte was held to answer this morning before Judge George Samuels on a felony charge. Harte was fined $500 cash for the appearance of Harte before the Superior Court for trial.

Harte refused to offer any defense for his action, declaring that he had reasons for leaving his wife which he would not state in court. When asked to explain this, the man stated he would prefer to remain in jail to laying bare his marital troubles.

Harte and his wife have not lived together for five years or more and during this time Mrs. Harte has cared for her two daughters, Virginia, aged 13, and Marcelline, aged 10 years, by her own efforts. WILL MEET TO START REGALL

Socialists to Begin Movement Against City Officials on Sunday Night.

Threatening the entire city administration, the Socialists of Oakland are preparing to circulate petitions for a recall election. At the meeting of the county council of the party last night in Hamilton Hall it was decided to hurry the work of securing names to the signatures, which, the Socialists state, will be filed as soon as possible.

The reasons given for the proposed recall by the Socialists is the breaking up of the meeting in Hamilton Hall last week by the police and the breaking up of the street meeting of the I. W. W. organization at Ninth and Broadway Sunday night. The petitions first put in the field were against Mayor Frank K. Mott and Commissioner P. C. Turner, but it is stated that more will follow, attacking other officials as well.

A meeting to perfect arrangements for the recall will be held Sunday evening at Rice Institute, when the party will hear reports on the matter. Admittance to the floor will be by card only.

The Socialists were scheduled to hold a street meeting at Eleventh and Broadway last night, but, according to their officials, this was postponed on account of the county council meeting. They may later attempt to test the power of the police.

How to Make a Real Wrinkle Remover

(From Fashion Reporter)
In these days of cleverly advertised "beautifiers" of 57 varieties and more, it is hard for a woman to believe she can make a simple home remedy which will do her more good and cost her much less than the average made preparation. There's nothing in the world as effective for removing or preventing wrinkles, blemishes and chin as a solution made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered saxolite in a half pint of white hazel. Every druggist has the ingredients. Use the mixture daily as a refreshing lotion. The quick and satisfactory results will surprise you. Even the first application produces marked improvement. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a firm, "solid," comfortable feeling.

CONFESSED SLAYER MEETS SON HERE

Fugitive Samuel Miller Admits Killing of Wife in East.

Broken by the long nervous strain of nine years spent eluding the police and wandering in fear of arrest from city to city in Europe and America, Samuel Miller, who has been held for the past two weeks awaiting the officers from Tennessee sent to identify him, yesterday afternoon broke down and confessed his identity and the fact that he had murdered his wife.

"I'm Miller," he said when confronted by James Robinson, assistant supreme court clerk of Memphis, who accompanied Detective Sergeant John H. Klink to Oakland to identify the prisoner. "I'm the man you are after. I'll go back without extradition proceedings. I'm glad to get it over with."

Through the identification of Miller as the wife-murderer who escaped from the Jackson county jail in 1903, a father and son who had not seen each other for ten years were reunited for a brief half hour in a cell in the Oakland city prison.

News of the positive identification of Miller appeared in the papers last evening and this morning, and today Harry Miller, a tailor employed in San Francisco, appeared at the Oakland police station and asked to see the prisoner.

"I think this man is my father," said young Miller.

The young man, who is about 26 years of age, was admitted to the cell where Miller is waiting to be taken back to Tennessee to answer with his life for the crime to which he has confessed.

CITY HAS NO RIGHT TO STOP BUSINESS

In response to a protest from John Bellincaut and six other residents of Clark street, near Fortieth, asking that the council take action for the removal of a planing mill in the neighborhood complained of as a nuisance, City Attorney Ben F. Womble filed an opinion with the city council this morning that the council had no power to interfere with the conduct of a legal business and no duty to act on a petition it be presented that the business was in fact a nuisance. The city attorney declares that the residents would have legal redress in the courts under city ordinance No. 338.

PULL OUT A HAIR

The Way to Tell Whether or Not Your Hair Is Diseased

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. Nine-tenths of the people need a hair tonic. You can make a test yourself that you can see and understand, which will tell you whether your hair is healthy or not. Pull a hair out of your head; if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased and requires prompt treatment if its loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want everyone whose hair requires treatment to try our Recall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it will not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. Recall "93" Hair Tonic is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, stimulate the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and eradicate baldness.

Out of 100 cases where it was given a thorough, conscientious test, it grew hair on 93 heads, which should be sufficient proof that Recall "93" Hair Tonic contains extraordinary remedial and hair-growing qualities. It is because of our knowledge of this preparation and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk.

Recall "93" Hair Tonic is a clean, clear preparation which does not grease, gum or thicken the hair, and it has a very pleasant odor. We have it in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Recall Remedies only at The Owl Drug Co. stores in Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

Manufacturers Declare Frozen Delicacy Is Accused Unjustly.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7.—Ice cream is a perfectly gentle and harmless delicacy that is being slandered with numerous cases of poisoning, of which it is entirely innocent. If one is to believe the discussion of the members of the Southwestern wholesale ice cream manufacturers, holding a convention here today.

"Some woman gives a party," said one speaker. "She makes a salad out of canned shrimp, in a tin vessel, and mixes vinegar with the dressing. The guests who eat it are poisoned, but as no one would like to criticize the salad that the hostess made, the ice cream that she bought gets all the blame."

ASKS FOR MODERATION OF SUGAR TARIFF LEGISLATION

President of Sugar Concern Makes Plea for Encouragement of Industry

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In view of the announcement made by Mr. Underwood, the chairman of the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives at Washington, the enclosed statement has been prepared to exhibit some facts and figures that are not commonly known or appreciated.

If you can find space in your columns to print the statement it will be appreciated. Very respectfully, ALAN S. SUGAR COMPANY. JOHN L. HOWARD, president. HOWARD'S LETTER.

The ways and means committee of the House of Representatives in Washington intends proposing to Congress the abolition of the duty on imported sugar and to substitute an import tax as an item of national revenue.

The following facts are familiar to those engaged in the sugar business, but they are not well known to the general public: The existing rates of duty are, viz: On refined sugar, $1.00 per 100 pounds; on raw sugar of 96 degrees, $1.63 1/2 per 100 pounds; on raw sugar from Cuba, 20 per cent less, $1.35 per 100 pounds.

Refined sugar is not imported. Cuban raw cane sugar finds its chief market in the United States because of the low rate of duty enjoyed and because, under ordinary conditions, the net results are better than would be realized on shipments to Europe in competition with the world's prices, which are fixed in London and Hamburg.

The world's sugar production and consumption are so nearly in balance that about 16,000,000 tons that any surplus or deficit report of shrinkage in the supply at any important source of production is almost immediately reflected in the price.

NATIONAL SITUATION.

The present annual consumption in the United States is set down at 3,500,000 tons, derived from the following sources:

Raw cane, duty paying, chiefly from Cuba, 1,800,000 tons. Raw cane domestic, from Porto Rico, 800,000 tons. Raw cane domestic, from Louisiana, 300,000 tons. Raw cane domestic, from Sandwich Islands, 500,000 tons.

Total cane sugar, 3,400,000 tons. Best sugar produced in the United States, 600,000 tons.

Total, 3,500,000 tons.

One-half of the consumption is produced in the United States and her dependencies, but Porto Rico, Louisiana and the Sandwich Islands have practically reached the limit of their productive capacity.

Therefore, the hope of making the nation entirely self-sufficient lies in the further expansion of the best sugar industry, and taking the capabilities of the wide expanse of territory, it is not difficult to conceive the ability of the country to produce the additional 1,800,000 tons of sugar which are now purchased in foreign countries.

The out-turn of beet sugar in 1897 was 45,000 tons, and in 1911 it had grown to 600,000 tons, or about one-sixth of the nation's consumption.

CALIFORNIA SITUATION.

In 1911 the output of refined sugar was, viz: Cane sugar, imported chiefly from the Sandwich Islands, 260,000 tons. Beet sugar, local production, 182,000 tons.

Total, 442,000 tons.

It will be noticed that in 1911 California produced about 27 per cent of the total beet sugar.

Upon the basis of a yield of ten tons of beets per acre and of the weight recovery of 16 per cent of the weight of the beets, the season of 1911 showed the consumption of 1,800,000 tons of beets and the use of 108,000 acres of state land in sugar beet culture.

The constant development of sugar beet culture throughout the United States naturally led to the invasion of the markets that had been supplied by the refiners of imported cane sugar, and this recognized and increasing menace led the owners of Eastern refineries to an open and concerted attack on the beet sugar industry by a movement to induce Congress to remove the duty on imported raw sugars.

Lawlor and the Schmitz Case.

After instructing the jury sitting in the case of former mayor E. E. Schmitz to acquit, Judge Lawlor delivered himself of this statement:

"It was impossible to secure the conviction of Schmitz even had Ruef testified, owing to the ruling in the Coffey case, which was not in effect when the Ruef case was appealed. I am sorry for Ruef's situation, and I believe nearly every man is sorry for him."

Why then did Judge Lawlor suspend proceedings for several days while a dicker for Ruef's testimony was being carried on? What was the object of holding the defendant to the last extremity of trial if Ruef's testimony, had it been given, would have been insufficient to convict? Had Ruef testified and the jury returned a verdict of guilty, would Judge Lawlor have set aside the verdict because of the insufficiency of the evidence, or would he have forced Schmitz to go again before the Supreme Court to obtain relief from an illegal conviction?

When Judge Lawlor suspended the trial while an effort was being made to induce Ruef to testify, or to get indictments pending in another court against him dismissed, not a syllable of evidence had been introduced to connect Schmitz with the crime of bribery. There was no evidence before the court connecting Schmitz with any offense punishable under the law. Ruef's testimony, if given, would have been insufficient to convict, says Lawlor after the trial is ended.

What was Judge Lawlor after? What was the object of taking such an extraordinary measure to secure abortive testimony? Was the judge acting in good faith toward the public and the defendant?

Judge Dunne says Ruef's incarceration is an outrage, yet he refused to dismiss the indictments pending against him. His colleague, Lawlor, sent Ruef to prison, deciding that the evidence which he said was insufficient in the Schmitz case was sufficient in the case of Ruef. Lawlor and Dunne profess to sympathize with Ruef, but they refuse to lift the cloud of indictments hanging over him. They pity him, yes, but they continue to hold his nose to the grindstone.

Probably Schmitz will be called upon to plead again and again to indictments which there is no testimony to support. What is this game being played for?

If Colonel Roosevelt wants to be president of a country where constitutions and courts don't count he should go to Mexico. Down there every fellow does as he darn pleases save when some other fellow is holding him up or sticking a bayonet through his carcass. "But the situation is dee-lightful," as the Colonel would say.

Roosevelt Has Betrayed Himself.

Colonel Roosevelt may deny that he intended to deceive the people when he declared he would not under any circumstances be again a candidate or accept another nomination, but he cannot successfully deny that he deceived Secretaries Stimson and Meyer when he told them in 1911 that he would not be a candidate in 1912 and would "not take part in the nomination for or against any candidate." He was talking to members of Taft's official family and knew what he said would be repeated at the White House since he laid no injunction of secrecy on his hearers. At the time his attitude toward the Presidency was being generally discussed in the press, hence his statement—now proved to be false—was deceptive in the extreme.

Roosevelt may say now that he meant what he said then, and that circumstances have altered his intentions; but the people of this country have a habit of expecting men who have held the Presidential office to be true to their word, to be upright in their political dealings and sincere in their utterances. Colonel Roosevelt has yet to show that he has not treated the public and President Taft unfairly. He has yet to satisfactorily explain why he has continuously said one thing and done the other thing.

All the explanation he has thus far given is that he became convinced there was a genuine call from the people for him to again be a candidate. This call appears to have appealed to his ambition rather than to his sense of honor. Other men have heard the same call and spurned it. General Grant responded to it as Roosevelt has, but he had never declared he would not be again a candidate—and when the test came it was proved that the call was voiced by politicians, not by the people. It was the voice of the siren that called; the people repudiated it.

Unless Colonel Roosevelt is less astute than we deem him to be he must be convinced by this time that he has eaten his words and betrayed his own fame by listening to the Lorelei song of political schemers who have mocked his ambition to serve their own ends. His candidacy symbolizes his repudiation of what he was wont to laud as his ideal, the "Square Deal."

Going abroad for news is an old adage that is illustrated by this statement in the Chico Enterprise:

"Mayor Wilson of Berkeley is in an impregnable position with reference to the effort to save Superintendent of Schools Bunker from dismissal."

The people of Berkeley have an entirely different impression. They labor under the delusion that Mayor Wilson is standing with the three members of the Board of Education who are trying to oust Bunker. Wilson is opposing the recall of the three School Directors who have clashed with the School Superintendent and who are bent upon forcing him out of the department. But apparently the people of Berkeley are all wrong about the issue; the Mayor is standing up for Bunker and resisting the "political skulduggery" having for its object the removal of Superintendent Bunker. Perhaps, though, the school ma'am of the Chico Enterprise has got the babies mixed.

Chasing Federal Spoils.

Congressman Kent and Governor Johnson are trying to get Postmaster Richardson of Sacramento displaced and an anti-Taft man appointed in his stead. Apparently Richardson is objectionable to Kent and the Governor because he does not agree with them politically—he is a Taft man. The Governor does not reside in Sacramento and is an enemy of the President's, hence his right to inject himself into the contest is not clear. Sacramento is not now in the same district with Kent, who resides in Marin county, and public sentiment there is not in favor of allowing him to name the postmaster. However, the effort to get the President to turn his friends out of office and give their places to his enemies is remarkable for its audacity. Governor Johnson has ruthlessly fired all Taft's friends that he could reach out of office—in fact, his administration is the most partisan and proscriptive that the State has ever had—hence it is surprising that he should claim any favors for his friends at the hands of the President. He has invoked the law of lex talionis and should abide by it. As for Kent, he is merely a stick of political dead wood, and deserves no consideration at the hands of real Republicans.

A Roosevelt boomer in Chicago, claiming to be a personal friend of William Jennings Bryan, announced that the Nebraska Colonel would support the Oyster Bay Colonel in case the latter received the Republican nomination. Unfortunately for this announcement, Bryan gave out a statement on the same day in which he said La Follette was the only candidate the Republican Progressives could conscientiously vote for. Thus one impudent falsehood was snuffed out before it gained currency, but there will be more to follow. The Teddy Bear crowd are long on invention and short on veracity.

The people of Oakland are perfectly willing for the State to turn the waterfront on the west side of the bay over to the municipality of San Francisco, but they are unalterably opposed to turning the waterfront of Oakland over to San Francisco. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce should bear this distinction in mind.

There are several cartloads of campaign literature lying in the State Capitol at Sacramento awaiting a claimant. It is La Follette literature, but it is in the hands of the Roosevelt jobocracy. When this consignment of campaign documents was forwarded to the State Capitol of California, the association of jobholders and job-chasers calling itself the Roosevelt League was massed under Battle Bob's banner and calling itself the La Follette League. Before the stuff reached its destination the consignees had thrown La Follette's flag in the creek and marched over to Teddy. But the campaign material remains as embarrassing testimony to an act of treachery without a parallel in the political history of California.

MAKING MONEY

Thirty-three years ago the entire amount of money in circulation in the United States was $316,266,721. The amount now in circulation is $3,824,572,121. Of this great sum $338,302,481 represents the assets of the government, and $3,286,269,640 is in circulation. An equal division of all the money in circulation would give each man, woman, and child the impressive amount of $34.61.

It might be consoling to some persons to have their $34.61 in hand, but no one, even those with the most socialistic tendencies, would advocate any such distribution. Just as a sporting proposition it was recently suggested that a distribution of all money and property be made at once, with a little bit on the side that at the end of a year or two those who have most of the money now would again have it in their possession. The suggestion may be somewhat exaggerated, but it is a fact that money rarely comes to any one through an accident.

The men who have accumulated great sums of money have been able to do so because they have foresight and daring. Men have made great sums of money in real estate because they have studied human nature and its tendencies. They have the sense of location and know the conditions that are bound to lead to increases in value. Frequently their consciences are obvious, but they have had the advantage of reaching them 24 hours before the other fellow.

Millions of dollars have been made out of mining and railroad properties, but wherever such fortunes have been made the men who have made them stood an equal chance to lose. In nine cases out of ten, where big fortunes have been made, the foundation for success was laid in much self-denial, with little pleasure and with much suffering. The difficulty is not so much in making money—for most people make some at some time—but in saving it. The hardships in the beginning are almost equal among all men, but once a little pile is accumulated the man who has it has a big advantage in the race.—Washington Post.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

WHAT REALLY IS THE MATTER.

(By Rev. Thomas A. Boyer, pastor First Christian Church.)

That the times through which we are passing are times of great mental and moral perturbation is one of the most elementary facts of modern consciousness. Indeed, it is perhaps doubtful, if in the whole sweep of history there has ever been a time more characterized by restlessness and unrest than the present time. Doubt is plethoric, denial is in the atmosphere, the very heavens are volubly with coming storms, splinters are flying everywhere.

While there have been other periods of revulsion and transition, such as the age of revolt in France, and the dismemberment of ancient Rome, the attitude today is different. It is less childish, it has more depth and serious purpose.

According to a very prevalent strain of interpretation all this stirring, restlessness—this rumbling of disquietude—is but the fulfilment of decay—a kind of a surface manifestation of the inherent devilishness with which it is alleged that our common human nature is so plentifully endowed. A very much more hopeful and I apprehend a very much more truthful interpretation, is the one that recognizes in all these things the evidences of a new and larger life that is breaking in a mighty inundation over the world.

According to this latter view, there is a very great deal more need of lamentation and prayer when there is no dispute, for inaction is a bad sign in itself. When something grows, something must give way. As the old world must be broken up, and the new world must be built, so the old world must be broken up, and the new world must be built. The new world must be built, and the old world must be broken up. The new world must be built, and the old world must be broken up. The new world must be built, and the old world must be broken up.

Not that there's any new truth that has come recently upon the world, simply a larger and truer apprehension of an old truth, a wrestling of the age-long purposes of the Almighty from the paper penitentials of creed and theological statements and a living manifestation of them in terms of daily life, and that's what's the matter with the world.

Just about the time a man begins to think he is acquainted with his wife she begins to act strangely.

ELECTRIC HEATING IN SWEDEN

Electric heating is not now in Sweden, and satisfactory apparatus has been on the market for some time, but both first cost and current consumption have hitherto been too great to bring about anything like extensive use. Well-informed critics here estimate that electric heating cannot be made as cheap as ordinary heating until the current can be delivered for 5 ore ($0.0134) per kilowatt hour. This is one of the points it is hoped to clear up by the experiments to be undertaken by the municipality.

There is a portable tile stove for electric heating on the market that is claimed to be as effective as the stoves in which fuel is burned. The makers state that their usual size is about 100x50x30 centimeters (39.37 by 19.68 by 11.81 inches) and has a capacity of 1.5 kilowatts. This, they state, will raise the temperature in a room of thirty cubic meters (39.24 cubic yards) capacity to 18 degrees Cel. (18 degrees Fah.) in one hour. After the room has been heated the stove may be switched to another set of connections using less current. It is claimed that the cost of operation on highest current requirement in Göttingen is 27 ore ($0.0724) per hour, while the lower connections to which it can be switched cost 14 ore ($0.0372) and 7 ore ($0.0185) respectively.

The town of Borås, which has about 21,000 inhabitants, is considering the sale at very low prices, by the municipal electric plant, of current for household use along similar lines. It is planned to have three tariffs—one in force during the darker part of the twenty-four hours, with usual charges for lighting purpose; a lower one (4 to 6 ore, equivalent to $0.07 to $0.0161 per kilowatt hour) for current used for cooking purposes; and a very low rate (3 to 2 1/2 ore, equivalent to $0.0054 to $0.0067) during the night for current used to warm rooms and houses by heating up the Swedish porcelain stoves or operating electric heaters of other designs.

The tile stoves for fuel consumption are usually ornamental. Some are cylindrical and some are square or triangular. These are not portable, but are built into the houses and form a part of the permanent fixtures of the go with ever-rented apartment. When it is considered that a nine-room apartment will often contain nine of these stoves, costing $26.80 to $53.60 each and over, it will be readily seen how much their utilization for electric heating will save.

Their economy is to take place in Washington, Ill.

SAILOR BOY DYING; RESULT OF FIGHT

J. Brunings Strikes the Curb in Fall and Fractures His Skull.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—J. Brunings, a sailor boy, scarcely more than 15 years old, and attached to the naval training station at Yerba Buena Island, is at the Harbor hospital with a slight chance of recovery as the result of a street fight at Kearney and Sutter streets at 12:30 this morning. The police have arrested Harry G. Clark, another sailor, who is being held in detention at the city prison as being responsible for the dying youth's condition.

As soon as the two men began fighting the police were summoned and when several officers reached the scene the injured boy was being carried into an ambulance. He had been struck in the face and had fallen back, striking his head on the curb. At the Harbor hospital it was found that his skull had been fractured and that there was slight hope for his recovery.

The police of the Barbary Coast squad were notified and after a search apprehended Clark in a Pacific street dive. He had been implicated in the affair.

MEN NEEDED TO TEACH BOY SCOUTS

James E. West Tells Teachers and Others of Value of Organization.

James E. West spoke Tuesday evening to teachers, playground workers and others in the children's room of the Oakland free library. West said in part: "The Boy Scouts should be a movement rather than an organization, that the scheme of instruction for boys embodied in the scout manual could best be applied in already existing organizations for boys."

"Two of the danger points in the scout scheme are: First, in devoting too much time in teaching the boys to do useless things, such as military drill, etc., and second, in the scout masters attempting to do too much of the work rather than placing the responsibility directly on the boys. The essential thing is to place responsibility on the boys and develop their enthusiasm and initiative."

"It is estimated that there are 300,000 boy scouts in the United States. The greatest need of the scout movement is to have more men take up the work of organizing and supervising the boys. There should be one adult scout master for every club of 25 to 30 boys. The men of our cities should come forward and undertake the organization of this splendid work for developing the character and initiative of American boys. We cannot emphasize too strongly that the boy scout movement is not a military organization in any sense of the word—it being simply an educational movement for boys."

MUSICAL CLOWNS, MAKE MERRY AT BELL THIS WEEK

WILLIAM GLISSANDO.

On the bill at the Bell Theater this week two musical clowns, Deltorini and Glissando, earn a good measure of laughs by their original methods of producing harmony. The knives, plates and pseudo eatables of a little stage luncheon are all brought into play to furnish their quota of music while even the buttons on the clothes they wear are likewise contributors to the musical melange.

Nothing in the act is overlooked if the possibility of a laugh is evident and if you measure the success of their efforts to please by the response from the house, then they are indeed good clowns. Vaudeville offers another distinctive novelty in the performance of Ollie Young and April, who are making a name for themselves by their original methods of producing harmony. The knives, plates and pseudo eatables of a little stage luncheon are all brought into play to furnish their quota of music while even the buttons on the clothes they wear are likewise contributors to the musical melange.

WOULDN'T TREAT, IS MADE TARGET

Lodi Man Had Narrow Escape When He Refused to Buy Drink for Stranger.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Because he refused to buy a drink for a man whom he had never seen before in his life, George Donaldson, a resident of Lodi, was made the target for two shots, which missed him, and narrowly escaped death or serious injury, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The affray occurred in the saloon of J. Hannan at Duboce avenue and Valencia street. John Fahy, a carpenter of 15 Sharon street, the pistol-wielder, is now under arrest at the city prison, charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

Donaldson has known Hannan, the proprietor of the place, for some time, and spent while there last evening. The saloon was almost deserted this morning and Donaldson was telling the proprietor of the death of his wife when Fahy entered and overheard a portion of the conversation.

"Hello, old man," he said, saluting Donaldson. "I am awful sorry to hear about your wife's death."

Donaldson stood by amazed, whereupon Fahy further surprised him by saying: "Buy a drink!"

Donaldson refused and was leaving when the carpenter whipped out a gun and fired two shots. His victim ran to the door and was summoned Patrolmen Cowhig and Pennell, who took Fahy into custody.

CROCKER IS POLITICAL 'BOSS' OF HILLSBORO

HILLSBORO, March 7.—William H. Crocker has executed the first political move of the history of the millinery city of Hillsboro, and he now presumably controls eighteen votes, or more than 15 per cent of Hillsboro's total registration for the vote of the first day of the registration for the bond election the head of the house whispered to the butler, who put the bottle to the footman, and the footman told it to the gardener, and so on through the retinue of Crocker's servants, with the result that there was a small procession leaving New Place and headed for the Registrar's office.

An hour later the seventeen servants qualified to vote, a lustrous crew up and Mrs. William H. Crocker took her oath before the Registrar.

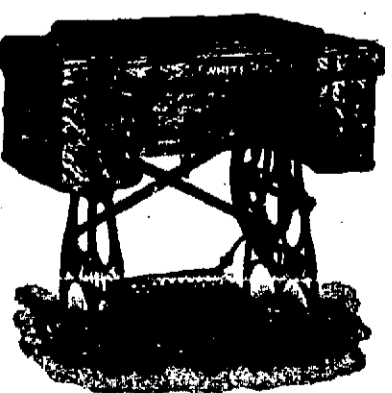

Crocker has not announced on what side of the fence he and his party of voters will line-up in the coming bond election, and Hillsboro awaits his announcement with breathless anticipation, as it is quite evident that eighteen votes from New Place is very likely to be an important determining factor in future elections.

STATE REFUNDS TAXES ON CORPORATION'S SHARE

WASHINGTON, March 7.—California's agricultural values have increased greatly in the last decade, according to statistics made public by the Census Bureau. The total wealth in the form of California farm property is $1,614,965,000, of which $8.8 per cent is contributed by land and buildings, 7.0 per cent by live stock and 2.3 per cent by implements and machinery. The average value of a farm land here for the State as a whole is $17.10. In 1910 the total number of farms owned in whole or in part by the operators was 66,632. Of this number 39,968 were reported free from mortgage, 26,749 were reported mortgaged, and for 515 no report relative to mortgage indebtedness was obtained.

The average value of a fully equipped farm is $18,208, an increase of $7223 as compared with the average in 1900. The average value per acre of land also shows an increase from $21.37 in 1900 to $21.13 in 1910.

Of every 100 farmers in California thirty-one raised hay and forage in 1900, fourteen potatoes, nine barley, seven corn, and three oats. Except in the case of potatoes these percentages are smaller than those for 1900. Of the $2,197 farms in the State 30,352, or 44.6 per cent were irrigated in 1900. The average reported irrigated in 1909 was 2,664,194 acres, or 23.4 per cent of the improved land in farms.

CHICAGO LOAN SHARKS SWIMMING INTO NET

CHICAGO, March 7.—John W. White, an investigator for the Mason Financial company, salary loan agents, was sentenced to jail for ninety days yesterday by United States Judge Landis for aiding and abetting a loan shark. The Court at the same time threatened to send half a dozen proprietors and employees of loan agencies to jail, for contempt in failing to tell the truth.

"It is evident there is a tremendous lot of perjury necessary in the conduct of the loan business," said the Court. "The United States Marshal will take charge of this man immediately."

SEEKS PUBLIC ROAD FOR RIGHT OF WAY

WILLOWS, March 7.—The Southern Pacific Company has applied to the Glenn county Board of Supervisors for a franchise to build its Colusa and Hamilton railroad along the county highway in the river section for a distance of nine miles in order to escape the necessity of buying a private right of way. The matter will be heard by the supervisors tomorrow, and man protests are expected from the land owners of the eastern part of the county who object to a railroad along the public highway.

In a condemnation suit recently for a right of way over the lands of the old Glenn grant the jury awarded the land owner a remarkably large sum because it was shown that the railroad would cross a wide area of land by causing floods on it.

AMERICAN BATTLESHIP JUST ESCAPES SINKING

NEW YORK, March 7.—That the battleship Nw Hampshire narrowly escaped sinking at the Brooklyn Navy Yard on Monday has just leaked out from unofficial sources. The battleship was about to be towed out of the dry dock after undergoing repairs. When the big dock was flooded three tugs made fast to the battleship, and started to pull her out, when one of the bluejackets discovered that a sea valve had been broken, and water was pouring into the vessel in great volume. She was quickly replaced in the dock and the water pumped out.

How the valve became displaced probably will be a subject for a court of inquiry. It is too far below the water line to have been accidentally knocked off, and there is a suspicion that it may have been tampered with.

NEWLYWED'S CUTE BABY TO CUT UP AT MACDONOUGH

MR. and MRS. NEWLYWED

After the dull iteration and reiteration of some of the musical comedies which are sent out of New York each year with the infinite variation of the "Fluffy Ruffles," it will certainly prove refreshing to witness a performance of the bright musical success, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," which will be seen at the Macdonough for three nights and Saturday matinee, starting tonight with its remarkable company of 40 people.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby" shows better craftsmanship in construction than most musical comedies, because it has at least a consistent plot which mingles a bit of pathos and sentiment with the songs and fun. There is also a lot of new business and the expensive settings and costumes are fresh and fetching. There is a rapid pace to the piece that does not admit of a dull moment and there are people in it who can sing and dance worth while.

Little James Rosen, of Buster Brown fame, will be seen as the baby. He is a comedian of distinct personality and will delight you immensely in the role of Napoleon Newlywed.

D. L. Don is another clever player who will tickle you greatly without resorting to the old slap stick comedy of which we have had such a surfeit on the American stage. Margaret Braun and Leo Hayes, in the respective roles of the fond mamma and doting papa, are two other important factors in the success of the piece. Mr. Hayes is considered one of the best dancers in this country.

There are sixteen sparkling song interpolations. The chorus of forty shapely girls, can sing and dance besides look pretty.

One of the many big sensational features acts with the gorgeous spectacular and musical extravaganza "Night Folies of San Francisco," that comes to the Macdonough theatre for its first performance Sunday, March 10, with a mammoth Saturday, the fantastic and bewildering act of Don Tin Yaw and Chan Shu Xing and their company of eight Chinese will present one of the most expensive and magnificent spectacles now before the public. The costumes of this act is said to be gorgeous.

Forty picked artists from the ranks of the "Top Notchers" in the amusement world are in this organization, to make this one of the finest attractions touring the road this season. A chorus of twenty of California's most beautiful daughters are also mentioned as one of the attractive features.

WESTERN PACIFIC TO IMPROVE ROAD

Goulds, Jeffrey and Schlacks to Visit Coast to Inspect System.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Wall street heard yesterday that plans were maturing for the improvement of the Western Pacific system. Charles H. Schlacks, first vice-president who has been here for six weeks conferring with E. T. Jeffrey, the president, will leave for the coast at the end of the week. It is probable that he will be accompanied by Jeffrey and members of the Gould family.

It is understood that George Gould is anxious to visit the Pacific coast and look over the improvements of the system. Miss Helen Gould, also may be of the party. A stop will be made at Denver and B. F. Bush, the president of the Missouri Pacific and Denver and Rio Grande, will join in the trip.

It is the understanding here that the Western Pacific will be provided with funds for betterments. The extent of the additional financing is not known, but it is understood to be sufficient for immediate necessities.

The report that Miss Helen Gould will make the trip to San Francisco has awakened unusual interest, as it may mark the readjustment of family financial relations. If George Gould and his sister, Helen, choose, they could at this time arrange for the needed travel and the personal assistance that they could give. Gould has several million dollars on call in the street. Miss Helen Gould is also possessed of ready money in large amounts.

JEFFERY SILENT.
At the office of E. T. Jeffrey it was stated that nothing could be given out for publication at this time. Jeffrey is busily engaged on the financial plans for both the Western Pacific and the Denver and Rio Grande.

In the street it was stated that within a few months Jeffrey would be relieved of the presidency of the Western Pacific and that he would be succeeded by B. F. Bush.

Bush left New York the other day for Denver, where he announced that $15,000,000 had been raised for the Denver and Rio Grande. He said that this amount would be expended in betterments over the next two years.

These improvements will be made as fast as is consistent with thorough work. As soon as the ground work track work will begin. About $7,000,000 will be expended this year.

The Denver shops will be enlarged until they are capable of making anything from a needle to a locomotive. Terminals in Pueblo, Salida, Minturn, Grand Junction and other towns will be extended.

About $1,500,000 will be spent in the vicinity of Soldier Summit, the backbone of the continental divide, to reduce the grade and make easier the operation of freight trains. Considerable double tracking will be done in the vicinity of Soldier Summit. Repairs will be made wherever necessary along the entire system. New equipment of the finest description will replace the rolling stock which has become worn out.

"We shall put the road into first class condition to meet every need and to take care of all transcontinental traffic before 1915," said Bush before leaving New York.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD CASE NEARING END

"Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce" Had Little the Better of This Action.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 7.—A case in the law courts, which rivals in legal activity Dickens' illustrative character of Jarndyce against Jarndyce, and is now in its final stages, is drawing to a close. The case of Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce, growing to the sale of the property and the withdrawal of the contestants. It is cited as a record case of prolonged litigation.

It began on November 2, 1901, as the case of Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce, for interpretation of a will. Within its eleven years of life, it has had six different titles, been seven times to the Supreme court of the State, and before eighteen different judges, of whom one is dead and three have left the bench. Nine different firms of lawyers have been counsel in the case. The original property involved was less than $50,000.

PACIFIC GROVE OFFERS INSULT TO UNIFORM
MONTEREY, March 7.—Considerable bitter feeling is evidenced here, both at the local military post and among the business men, over the proposed sale of the property and the withdrawal of the contestants. It is cited as a record case of prolonged litigation.

An investigation is being conducted by local army officers on the authority of the war department, and official action in Washington soon will be taken. One of the soldiers who was barred from the public dance was Sergeant Victor Moreau of Company M, Twelfth Infantry. With him were twenty privates.

The dance was held at the pavilion and was open to the public upon payment of an admission fee. Sergeant Moreau and his comrades offered to pay for admittance, but it is declared that the money was refused by the ticket seller, who is alleged to have told them that if they were attired in civilian clothes they would be admitted.

PASSENGER TRAIN IN SNOW THREE DAYS

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., March 7.—A Leavenworth and Western passenger train which was stalled in snow drifts three days between Miltonvale and Clay Center reached here last night. The passengers and crew had to subsist on milk and eggs for nearly a week.

The train left here Friday morning and reached Miltonvale, the western terminus, without trouble. But after leaving there Saturday morning the battle with the snow began. It reached Haines Tuesday afternoon and had to turn back to Miltonvale. It did not reach there until after midnight. The trip to Leavenworth yesterday was made without difficulty.

CHICAGO ON TRAIL OF TICKET SCALPERS

CHICAGO, March 7.—Recent agitation against theater ticket scalping has led to the proposed adoption of several methods by the council license committee looking to the abolition of the practice. There are to be presented to the theater managers next Tuesday.

They include a proposition that theater managers must accept licenses revocable when ticket scalping is shown. If this is accepted, the council will license free for first class houses be reduced from $100 to $50.

If this proposition is refused, it is proposed to place a tax on each play which comes to the city. This, it is said, would fall hardest on the Grand Opera.

Compare the taste of Schlitz in BROWN BOTTLES with beer in light bottles

Schlitz is as pure when poured into your glass as when it left the brewery. It's the Brown Bottle. It keeps out the light. Light develops in beer a peculiar taste and a disagreeable odor.

This is not a theory. It is a fact proven by scientists.

Schlitz is properly aged before leaving the brewery.

It will not cause biliousness, nor ferment in your stomach.

'JOLLY' HUSBAND, JURIST ADVISES

Judge of Domestic Relations Court Gives Advice to Wives.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Members of the Women's Aid and Loan Society were advised to "jolly" their husbands and thus prevent family discord in an address by Judge Charles H. Goodnow, of the Court of Domestic Relations, yesterday.

"The trouble these days," he said, "is that men and women, after they are married, forget the nice little things which count so much. They no longer pat each other on the cheek. 'Jolly' each other, take moonlight strolls together. They become too matter-of-fact and some one of them comes to believe the other does not care enough. This leads to quarrels and separation."

One woman interrupted the judge to raise the question of woman suffrage. "I do not believe in women voting," responded the speaker, and continued his address.

Over Plans for Panama-
Pacific Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Nearly 200 leading citizens of Portland and other Oregon communities, accompanied by their wives, are coming to San Francisco next week to determine on a site for Oregon's state building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. A telegram received yesterday is to the effect that the party will arrive next Wednesday night, and on Thursday will be taken on an automobile tour of the fair site.

They will make their headquarters while here at the St. Francis Hotel, and the directors of the exposition company are making plans to entertain them royally. They are but the advance guard of delegations from other states who will come here for a similar purpose.

It was originally planned that the state buildings should be located between Lincoln and Golden Gate parks, but it is understood that there may now be some change in this plan, as the wishes of the state representatives are to be taken into consideration by the exposition committee.

BRIDE COMPLETES LONG SEA TRIP

Arrives in San Francisco After Voyage Around Horn
in Bark.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Finishing a 14,000-mile voyage, from Philadelphia to this city, around Cape Horn, Mrs. Charles Olsen, bride of the captain of the four-masted bark John Ena, is the heroine of a series of adventures that read like a novel.

The bride was formerly Miss Kathleen McManis, and was one of Philadelphia's most accomplished musicians. She passed the days of the long voyage in many novel ways. Once she had a boat lowered and secured a photograph of the vessel in full rig. She dropped overboard a letter to her brother, which was found in its bottle by fishermen and forwarded to its destination. She baited albatross and caught fish. On her arrival here her mail contained letters from the East, weighed 100 pounds.

'THE APACHE' SCORES AT THE BROADWAY

At the Broadway theater yesterday there opened there for the last four days of this week the much talked of Parisian dance sensation, "The Apache," produced by a company of ten European dancers, direct from the Folies Bergere.

It is a story told in pantomime of the life of the underworld and is full of thrills and sensations and the musical accompaniment is most wonderful and weird and sweet.

The company is a good one and work hard to interpret the meaning of the dance. Judging from the applause it receives it more than meets with approval. This will be the feature act for the next three days only as their engagement ends on this Saturday night.

On the entirely new bill which opened yesterday are four other high class acts that go with a snap and vim and with the five reels first-run pictures makes a vaudeville show that for the money is in fact five times the money would be hard to equal in any theater in this country.

The dancing company is under the direction of the well known vaudeville producer, Edwin T. Emery. The pantomimists performing in the unusual offering are Miss Hazel Bartle, a winsome childlike figure who dominates in the dance; Frank H. MacQuarrie, as the callow keeper does some remarkable pantomime work. Hamilton Lee makes his first American appearance in this country, playing the part of Picot. Thomas Kelly made an excellent appearance. Miss Helen is a petite person and Elbert Hertow made a splendid "Gendarme."

SPRECKELS CONCERN SUES CHUTES CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—The Realty and Rebuilding company, a corporation owned and controlled by Rudolph Spreckels, has filed two suits in the Superior Court against the Chutes Realty Company and its stockholders for a total of $250,000.

The stockholders named in the suit are M. Oppenheim, E. E. Smith, M. Syme, E. E. Davis, J. K. Kelsey, Al Well and Irving C. Herman.

The suit is based upon the statement that the Chutes Company failed to live up to the terms of an agreement to lease a block of land located on Fillmore, between the streets of Turk, Eddy and Webster streets.

SERMON WINS APPOINTMENT. MONTREAL, March 7.—President Taft's remembrance of a sermon he heard in Merced three years ago and of the minister who delivered it resulted in the appointment yesterday of Rev. James Miles Webb, formerly of Merced, as chaplain in the United States army.

FOLLY OF FAT EASILY OVERCOME

SLENDER Margaret Knolly now, if you please. The fascinating leading lady of the Bijou, now more fascinating than ever, astonished all her friends on Broadway the other day by presenting to their admiring gaze a sweet and willowy form in place of the bulky figure which had been the subject of their jokes and snatches of laughter. After a good deal of diplomatic cross-examination, the lady at small acquaintances the secret was cautiously whispered to a few dear friends, with the result that curiosity knew no rest. It was not exercise, nor fasting, nor sea air, nor worry about her new venture that had brought about this wonderful willowy change in the charming Mrs. Knolly. None of these; nothing but a simple picture which all good druggists are familiar with and which she had bought at a drug store. One-half ounce Marmola, one-half ounce Fluid Extract Cascara, Aromatic, and three and one-half ounces Peppermint Water. "Grown folks" need a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime," explained the now slender Margaret. "It is simply wonderful. It takes off the fat quickly, as much as a pound a day, and keeps it off. You can eat what you like, too. In that respect it is unlike anything of the kind I ever heard of, and besides it has another splendid feature—it is entirely harmless, and will not cause wrinkles. I think it is about as essential as toilet articles for the woman who is fat and wants to get thinner as fast as possible. In order to get the best results, however, you should use the Marmola in the original package and mix it in with the other two ingredients after you get home."

women, but they are particularly useful to women because it is especially important at every stage of a woman's life that the blood supply be kept pure and rich. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic—not an ordinary tonic, but one that has made many almost miraculous cures in obstinate diseases. They give just the aid required to bring back health and strength to the nervous and exhausted.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are useful in any disease caused by thin or impure blood, and the list of such diseases is astonishingly large. Anaemia literally means bloodlessness and is a condition in which the blood is thin and watery. Chlorosis is a form of anaemia most common in growing girls. In rheumatism the blood becomes thin more rapidly than in any other disease. After an attack of the grip and acute fevers the blood is always thin and impure. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the tonic to use during convalescence.

When the blood is poor and thin the stomach is imperfectly supplied with well-oxidized blood and nerve force. The food ferments, gas and certain acids form and the trouble is pronounced indigestion or dyspepsia.

The nerves receive from the blood all of their energy and repair waste or damage. Some forms of paralysis are caused by thin blood. The progress of locomotor ataxia is stopped in many cases when the blood is made pure, rich and red.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood, give it just the elements it needs and immediately the work of repair begins. Our free book, "Diseases of the Blood," tells more about this and gives absolute proof. Write for it today.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Nervous Debility Cured

Mrs. Frances Clark, a dressmaker of No. 1620-B Howard street, San Francisco, Cal., says:

"I suffered for about three years with nervous debility. I was very nervous and during most of the three years I could not sleep well. My stomach was quite bad and I was pale and somewhat run down. I was not able to work steadily.

"A friend urged me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and upon doing so I felt better from the start. I took them for several weeks and gained ten pounds in weight and am able to work every day. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many of my friends and always with good results."

MEXICAN 'JOAN' IS PRINCIPAL IN SUIT

Former Mayor Davie Wants
$500,000 From Mexican Government.

Sonorita Vasquez, leader of soldiers, sometimes known as the "Mexican Joan of Arc," who fought side by side with Madero against Diaz, is to be a principal in a $500,000 damage suit filed against the Mexican government. The suit will be filed Monday in the United States Court by Lord & Washington, attorneys for J. L. Davie, former mayor of Oakland, and his three sons, William, Frank and Frederick. The basis of contention is that the Davies were forced at the time of the outbreak of the insurrection to give up valuable holdings near Mazatlan, in the state of Sinaloa. They had been operating a rich gold mine there.

Sonorita Vasquez is alleged to have played a prominent part in the expulsion of the Davies, leading the band of horsemen that rounded up the Americans and ordered them to leave Rosario, the town near the mines. The woman was dressed as a cavalry officer and was the dominant spirit of the band. She was one of Madero's staunchest supporters and has a perfect fighting organization.

Eight years ago Davie and his sons perfected their Mexican claim, and since the Southern Pacific built its line to Mazatlan, have had easy access to the mines. They have spent many thousands on the property. Their mine adjoins the Tajo which has been worked for 350 years, according to history and tradition, and is said to be the richest quartz property in the country. The Bradburs of Los Angeles own it as a close corporation and employ 1500 men. The Maderistas gave those people the same order to depart that was given Davie and others.

"My sons and myself have a just claim against the Mexican government and we propose to press it through the state department," said former Mayor Davie last evening. "The people here can hardly realize—in fact could not until President Taft issued his proclamation of warning—how dangerous it is for Americans to be in Sinaloa, and other sections of Mexico. We were told to be gone in six hours. We had to leave everything and skip or else get shot. I went back two months later and then saw I had to hurry away again or be killed."

"At the same time we were told to go the Maderistas destroyed 200 bridges on the Southern Pacific's new line."

MISSPELLED NAME BRANDED 'POLITICS'

CHICAGO, March 7.—Friends of Governor Charles S. Deneen declared last night that a game of "smooth politics" had come to light on the west side when they discovered that a petition was being signed for Charles S. Deneen for governor.

It is believed that an attempt is being made to deceive voters by the introduction on the ballot of the second name, the only difference being an "S" instead of an "B" in the spelling.

The governor several weeks ago announced himself a candidate to succeed himself.

Attempts last night to find Charles S. Deneen for the purpose of ascertaining his views on state and national politics failed. His name does not appear in the city directory, although he is known to room on Clifton avenue.

Proper Care of Hair and Complexion

Cleanliness of the scalp means everything in growing and preserving a beautiful head of hair, as only from a clean scalp will healthy hair grow. MAY BE CAUSE OF BREAD WAR

Transbay Firm Cuts Prices and Increases Size of Loaves.

A war of the bakers has been going on with the invasion by a large San Francisco firm of the field on this side of the bay, which has been exclusively claimed by local breadmakers.

The transbay firm, of which the Oakland shop proprietors complain, has started the fight by increasing the weight of the loaf sold here, as well as by cutting the price slightly. The concern, within the last two weeks, has begun a vigorous canvass for general trade, whereas it sold previously to scattering customers, including one or two railroads. It is reported to the Chamber of Commerce by one of the Oakland dealers that the new competitor has gone after the business of a large restaurant by furnishing free bread for a trial period.

DISPUTE ARISES OVER COST OF ELECTIONS

Mayor Wilson Believes Amount Will Have to Be Raised to $8000.

BREKELEY March 7. The petitions for the recall of the school directors involved in the projected A.F.L.-C.I.O. School Superintendent F. F. Bunker were not precluded in time for filing this morning with City Clerk Walter J. in shape for submission. They will be in shape for submission by 10:30 a.m. this afternoon. There are now close to 1200 signatures for each of the petitions. It is noted that a bundled above the number required by the charter.

City Clerk Seaborn is inclined to differ with the members of the council in their estimate of the cost of the election, they having fixed at the amount Seaborn declares but four election officers at each booth are required by law for a special municipal election and that other details will bring the cost per polling place to about $41. This, for approximately thirty booths, will amount to $1230 per election.

the election will be held in the same

Seaborn figures therefore two elections on the recall question at a cost of $240,000. A third election will be necessary on the liquor amendment to the charter, making $3690 in all.

City officials believe the approaching recall election will cost the city about $8000, leaving a sufficient balance from that amount to defray the cost also of the "sealed package" liquor election, at which other charter amendments are to te of the whole has set aside the needed amount. Regarding the expense Mayor J. Stitt Wilson said today:

"We thought that inasmuch as the city is to hold special elections, we had better prepare for them and found it necessary to set aside $8000 from the already merged street and lighting fund. It is probable that this will not cover the cost of street lighting, electricity and we may have to raise the appropriation to $10,000."

The statement of the probable heavy expense of the recall election is contrary to the statement of the city the recall committee. Cornish declares that the recall election will cost not more than $2000 and probably but $1500. He says that the recall committee and its supporters of the majority are "already circulating misstatements concerning the expense of the impending election, with the purpose of inducing the public to believe that the recall election will cost the city from $8000 to $12,000." The fact is that "exaggerated estimates of the cost of the recall election emanate directly from those whose sole purpose is to stir up the real issue before the people, which is, State vs. City of Seattle, and to cloud the department of education?" Official records show the cost of such an election to be but $1500.

We therefore register our emphatic protest and call upon this Board of Education to do its plain duty in carrying out the people's expressed and unexpressed will.

If the Board of Education does not keep faith with the people in this matter we are of the firm belief that it would be useless to submit any more bond issues for schools for the next five years to come. Respectfully submitted,

COUNCIL RECONSIDERS CLAIMS AGAINST CITY

Abandoned Action to Jefferson Street to Cost Large Sum

Action of the city council in continuing until the year 1916 the consideration of about ten claims aggregating $6000, filed by commissioners and others for the proceedings rescinded some months ago for the now abandoned opening of Jefferson street north to San Pablo avenue, was reconsidered this morning when the city attorney filed an opinion that the council could legally pass the claims.

The opinion recited, however, that they might be reduced to a figure to be decided at the discretion of the council as to the value of the services rendered.

After some discussion the claims were again laid over "until the return of Mayor Frank K. Mott" when they will be taken up for the twentieth time. The commissioners appointed at the time of the resolution of intention to open Jefferson street, Guy C. Calden, W. O. Wedgewood and M. P. Thomas, completed their work in June, 1911. The proceedings were thrown out in the face of a general protest, and the commissioners and those employed by them have been waiting impatiently and at times almost hopelessly, for the council to pass favorably upon their claims.

At one time it was doubted whether the council had any right to pay the claim, and two or three legal opinions have been obtained from the city attorney. The claims were to have been paid from the individual assessments on the property. As the proceedings were thrown out there were no assessments, and the council had not provided in the budget for an extra expense of $6000. The commissioners made successive cuts in their demands, cutting them in half and then lowering them from close to $5000 down to $2000.

At one time the council became tired of considering the Jefferson street claims for the abandoned opening proceedings and continued the matter to 1915 for further hearing. City Attorney Woolner added a chapter to the serial this morning by filing a new opinion and the matter was again continued. The opinion in brief was as follows:

"I advise that the expenses of these proceedings are a legal charge upon the city and can be paid out of the general fund. The council has the right to fix the value of the services rendered."

'LEGISLATIVE FINANCE' TO BE HIS SUBJECT

Professor Thomas H. Read, professor of government in the University of California and late advisory to Governor Hiram Johnson, will speak to the members of the Oakland chapter, American Institute of Banking. The subject will be "Legislative Finance," and will include a discussion of methods for putting through appropriations and other phases of state legislation.

WIFE ASSAULTS

Follows Husband to Affinity's Home; Then She Gets Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Notwithstanding the fact that Edgar Grier Mundorf is a detective in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, his wife, Anna Mundorf, proved the better sleuth in a private affair and obtained evidence which enabled her to secure a decree of divorce from Judge Brown today.

Mundorf was formerly a sergeant in the Coast Artillery station at Sausalito, but following his discharge obtained a position as "gun show" man and according to his wife, became enamored of a woman detective named Mrs. Casbolt, who lives at 40 Pleasant street.

According to Mrs. Mundorf it took her considerable time to outwit her husband and the woman whom he admired, but she finally located them together and today was effected a separation and $30 a month alimony.

Mrs. Mundorf told in detail how she assumed a disguise, obtained employment in the neighborhood of the Pleasant street house and had spied upon her husband. When she finally caught him, she declared that he jumped over a back and was pursued by her for a considerable distance.

STATE HONORS

LUTHER BURBANCK

This Is Bird and Arbor Day; the Schools Do Practical Work.

SACRAMENTO, March 7.—This "Bird and Arbor" day, set apart to the legislature in an act of 1909 in honor of the birthday of Luther Burbank, the wizard of Santa Rosa, a holiday for the instruction as to the economic value of birds and trees and the promotion of a spirit of prizing for its purpose a semi-public lecture toward them.

All public schools and educational institutions are by the act directed to observe Bird and Arbor day, not a holiday, but for special school work including suitable exercises.

In speaking of the day State Senator Foster Homans said there is another side that has not always worked to the best advantage. Homans said:

"Though productive of much good, the day also has had a retarding influence upon the development of practical forestry by clouding the issue. It has led people to believe that tree planting was forestry and diverted attention by bringing into the question poetry and emotion, from the protection and management of existing forests.

"An effort should be made to instruct the people along lines of practical forestry."

Hollywood Man Alleged to Have Cut Victim's Throat With Razor.

Takes Eleven - Year - Old Son With Him and Hides in the Hills.

LOS ANGELES, March 7.—Charged with having cut the throat of and killed John Eason, the man he accused of having alienated the affections of his former wife, F. A. Adams of Hollywood, taking with him his 11-year-old son, fled from a sheriff's posse through the hills back of this city today.

It was stated that Adams went to Redondo Beach late last night and entered the lodging-house his divorced wife maintained there. According to officers, he forced a window of the room occupied by Eason, and after a struggle, killed Eason by cutting his throat with a razor.

Then, despite the lateness of the hour, Adams went to a justice of the peace at Redondo Beach and asked for a complaint against his victim, charging him with having alienated Mrs. Adams' affections. Denied the complaint, Adams went back to his Hollywood home, took his young son, food and money and sought the protection of the hills.

Mrs. Adams discovered Eason's dead body lying across his bed this morning. The sheriff was notified and a posse started in pursuit of the alleged murderer.

The crime of which she is accused is a felony, but she was liberated on $100 bail and failed to appear and report for trial today. She is believed to be in Martinez.

'NEVER AGAIN!' DECLARE PLAYERS, AND ECHO ANSWERS 'NO!'

HAWAIIAN FEAST TOO MUCH FOR ACTORS; 'AWA' WITH 'AWA'

MISS LAURETTE TAYLOR, who is appearing in Tully's play, and who was present at sensational dinner.

Miss Laurette Taylor and Others Eat, Drink and Are Merry, but It's Awful When Time Comes for Performance

NEW YORK, March 7.—"Never again!" quoth Laurette Taylor, actress, and "never again!" echo her associate players in "The Bird of Paradise." It's all because they all had a little party, an Hawaiian party, with outlandish things to eat and drink, so much so that if any White Ribboner wants to get numerous pledges of "never again," all that is necessary to do is to go behind the scenes and interview the banqueters. Things Hawaiian are the feature of the hour in New York, where Oliver Morosco has a success in Richard Watson Tully's play of Hawaiian life, "The Bird of Paradise." So wonderfully have author and producer realized the atmosphere of that land just next door to the "land of the lotus eaters," that even the actors, those creatures of theatrical tricks and mechanical contrivances, have gotten the fever. So when the native Hawaiians, who form a background of reality in the play, decided they would have a real, genuine poi feast, with awa to drink, nothing would do but for their American brethren to get in on the feed, too.

The stage of Maxine Elliott's bistro of a theater, where the play is being given, was the scene; time, after the matinee and before the night performance.

Take one big bowl and put it in the center of an open space, fill it with nobody knows what but the cook, call it poi, and then seat about the bowl such lights of our stage as Laurette Taylor, Pamela Gaytherne, Theodore Roberts, Guy Bates Post, Lewis Stone and Alfred Perry, and you have the proper setting.

Although all but the banqueters were strictly barred from the mysterious feast, rumor do say that everything went most merrily, the poi with

CHILDREN OF TEXTILE STRIKERS SCRUB FLOORS

Ran Away From Home Where Committee Placed Them, Declares Witness

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Two children of Lawrence strikers ran away when forced to scrub the floor of the home in which they were placed by a committee, according to testimony given at the House committee's hearing on the strike today.

Daniel T. Murphy, prosecuting attorney of Lawrence, read the following telegram from Samuel G. Logan, the assistant city marshal:

"Adam Banker, 13, Peter, 11, of 21 Common street, when brought to Arlington Hall, New York, were put with a Jewish family. Made them scrub floors. Did not like the way they were treated, ran away. Picked up by letter carrier and put in Children's Home, Twenty-third street and Fourth avenue, New York."

Mrs. Taft did not attend the hearing today, but her niece, Miss Anderson, was present, unaccompanied.

Rev. Clark Carter, the city missionary of Lawrence, gave testimony regarding the removal of children, which the churches opposed.

"A friend of mine," he said, "heard a woman tell a little girl who was to be taken to New York 'put on your torn dress and leave your mittens at home. They'll take care of you over there.' It was the general impression that the people who were sending ing the children away wanted to excite sympathy."

WANTED CHILDREN BACK.

Carter said that after the children were sent away parents came to him complaining and saying they wanted their children back. The missionary also described a condition of terror prevailing among the foreigners, aroused by the strikers.

"All those people, particularly the women," he said, "are terror-stricken. People have been aroused from their beds at night by strike agents who would shout: 'No work; don't go to work; kill you.' Threats to blow up homes precipitated a terrorized condition among the people."

"Do I understand that people of Lawrence are in a state of terror?" asked Representative Hays.

"The strike began in terrorism," Carter replied. "The people rushed the streets in calling the strike, broke down the mill gates, overpowered the watchman, rushed through the mills, tore girls from their work and drove all the workers out. Some of the girls told me they were thrown down and others fainted."

"The people generally felt, terror every day, whether parties to the strike or not. People in the suburbs were afraid to go into Lawrence for days."

KNOWLAND TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR THE PEOPLE

Congressman Would Bar Ships Owned by Railroads From Panama Canal

WASHINGTON, March 7.—In an effort to tighten up the bill denying railroad owned steamship lines the right to use the Panama canal to stifle competition, Representative Knowland of California, at a meeting of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce yesterday, offered an amendment providing that no such company in which a railroad "has an interest" be permitted the use of the canal.

The Knowland amendment provided that where a company establishes a steamship line in interstate commerce, with the steamships running parallel to the railroad, that the government bar the company from the canal.

The amendment was defeated, although all of the republicans and two of the democrats on the committee voted for it.

The amendment of Representative Covington of Maryland was favored, providing that no steamship company owned by a railroad be permitted the use of the canal.

Knowland said last night that he is afraid the object of the fight of those who want the canal to furnish real competition will be defeated by the Covington amendment. He pointed out that the Pacific Mail can not be said to be owned by the Southern Pacific, because only little more than 50 per cent of the stock is understood to be in possession of the railroad company. His own amendment would have been sure to reach the reviewed Mail, he said, for there can be no doubt that the railroad has "an interest" in the steamship line in question.

As the matter now stands, the committee is on record for the Covington amendment, but it was arranged to have the matter reviewed today at a special conference between Representative Knowland, the committee chairman, Adamson and Commissioners Lane and Fruity of the interstate commerce commission who should be authorized to take charge of the question of railroad owned steamship lines using the canal.

COLONEL SAYS HE WILL SEE ANYBODY

Declares There Is Nothing Strange About Visit of Perkins.

Roosevelt Excused From Jury Service; Perkins and Dixon Confer.

MINEOLA, L. I., March 7.—"I don't see why anybody should be concerned over such unimportant things," said Colonel Roosevelt when he reached Mineola for jury service today and was asked to say something about the visit of George W. Perkins at Sagamore Hill last night.

"Why," continued the colonel, with a broad grin, "I'd see Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Perkins and Jim Hill all together if they wanted to see me; I'd see Gompers, Mitchell, Burns, the detective, and the McNamaras, if they were pardoned out of jail. I'll see anybody I want to at any time. If they don't want to know that they have seen me I won't tell. If they do want to know I will tell."

The clerk announced that jurors not engaged in the case on trial were excused for the day and Colonel Roosevelt returned in his automobile to Oyster Bay.

NEW YORK, March 7.—"It is curious," said George W. Perkins today, "that the papers should try to make a mystery out of my calling on Colonel Roosevelt yesterday when every one knows I am for him."

"I did see Senator Dixon last night. He is making an heroic fight against the tremendous odds of a powerful political machine to give the people of this country a chance to express their preference for President. My talk with Senator Dixon was about this very important matter."

GROCER ROBBED WHILE SLEEPS PEACEFULLY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—T. Ballax is a grocer of 461 Larkin street and sleeps in the rear of his store. Some time last night burglars entered by means of a pass key and without waking him, broke open his trunk and stole $505 in cash. The culprits went directly to the trunk without disturbing anything in the store or the apartment in the rear. Ballax did not discover his loss until he awoke in the morning.

Figures Tell the Story of the TRIBUNE'S Wonderful Progress

THE ADVERTISERS of Oakland know where to go to get results. Look at these figures and then you can understand why THE TRIBUNE is forced to print a 20-page newspaper nearly every day except Sunday when it prints 48 pages. Merchants nearly put the poor old Enquirer out of business in December. The figures tell a sad story for our Tenth street contemporary. The merchant who pays his money for advertising knows where to go to get full value. THE TRIBUNE is pleased to compare its advertising business with that of any evening newspaper published west of Chicago.

Vanderbilt Party Sees Polo Match

Multi-Millionaire and Friends Reach San Diego in a Private Car.

SAN DIEGO, March 7.—In their private car members of the Vanderbilt-Ames party of New York city and Boston have arrived here. There are six persons in the party: Mrs. Elsie French-Vanderbilt and her son, William Vanderbilt of New York, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lathrop Ames of Boston, W. P. Barden of New York and G. Amory of Boston. The party expects to remain here several weeks. Today all of them will be at the Country Club to see the polo match.

New York Central Flyer Is Derailed

Engineer and Fireman Are Hurt When Locomotive Rolls Down Bank.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., March 7.—The New York Central limited train on the Big Four railroad, from St. Louis to New York, was derailed here early today, when the engine of the flyer crashed into a box car of a freight train at the Plum Valley street crossing. Several coaches left the track, remaining upright, but the engine rolled down an embankment. Engineer Eusey of Brightwood, Ind., and his fireman, Guy Wooley of Bellefontaine, were the only persons injured.

DUMAS FOR CRIME

Masked Man Identified by Mrs. Cudaby; Says He Would be Sleuth.

PASADENA, Cal., March 7.—Mrs. J. Cudaby, who was identified by Mrs. Jack Cudaby as the masked man who forced an entrance into her home last week, stated at his hearing today that his troubles were due to reading Alexander Dumas' "Count of Monte Cristo." He did not explain how the famous novel got him into his predicament and the police are more baffled than ever.

Mrs. Cudaby testified in the police court hearing that Cudaby was the masked man with whom she struggled and the prisoner made vehement denial. He declared that his motive for calling on Mrs. Cudaby later, when arrested, was to secure employment as a detective. His first story that he had been offered twenty-five $20 bills to get Mrs. Cudaby's signature to a typewritten document, he declared to have been a fabrication. The hearing was continued until next Wednesday.

STANFORD'S SPRING CROP OF ROMANCES SPROUT

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 7.—The annual crop of spring romances of Stanford students has been augmented by the announced engagement of Miss Bernice Field of the 1909 class to Henry Granville Hill of the same class.

Both former students live in San Jose. Hill, after receiving his diploma in the pre-law department, was enrolled in the Harvard Law School. He returned to Stanford last year and received the degree of doctor of jurisprudence with the 1911 class. He is practicing law in San Jose.

FOR BIG MANEUVER CAMP. WASHINGTON, March 7.—The House yesterday passed a joint resolution authorizing the secretary of war to accept from the citizens of Tennessee approximately 5000 acres of land near Tullahoma, in that state, for use as a maneuver camp and training ground for the state militia of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina. The resolution now goes to the Senate.

KANSAS CITY CHOSEN. KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7.—At an executive meeting of the directors of the Western Retail Implement and Vehicle Dealers' Association, Kansas City was chosen as the 1913 meeting place. The meeting will be held January 14, 15 and 16.

ON the great plains exercise, fresh air and sunlight stimulate every organ of the body to life and work.

But only a very few people get health-making employment in the open air.

Workers and worriers indoors, grinding out special work without healthy allround exercise, get run-down and tired out. For these

MARVELOUS KICK
OF ORPHEUM STAR
ANNEXES LAURELS

MISS CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD

All the town seems to be talking of that marvelous "kick" which Charlotte Greenwood indulged in on the stage at the Oakland Orpheum, this week. Ladies have been kicking since the dawn of time, according to historians, but Miss Greenwood has kicked entirely new lines of kick. It can hardly be described—this particular kick—but it appears to consist of a long semi-circular sweep of the left leg at an angle of about 45 degrees, and it is invariably greeted by shrieks of delighted laughter from a delighted audience.

The philosophers will have to explain why it is that so simple a thing as a semi-circular kick should so greatly excite the multitude. The kick remains that it is so. Also it is an undeniable fact that all the other bits of comedy and music which Miss Greenwood and her companion, Miss Burnham, indulge in are almost lost sight of in the amusement of crowds over the famous Greenwood kick.

Entertainment is entertainment, wherever you find it and no one can deny that Miss Greenwood entertains, nor can one deny either that she has not produced what the experts call an absolute novelty in the world of vaudeville.

Seven of the eight acts at the Orpheum this week are absolutely new. All of them will close their engagement next Saturday night except Julius Tannen. He will be the one act held over for next week's show.

The features which will close on Saturday night include Richardson's Posing Dogs; Ida O'Day and her company of players in "The Girl's Best Friend"; Pink Gardner and Anna Revere; Bert Jordan, the dancer; and Pouchot's Flying Ballet, known as "The Act Beautiful." Louis Dresser, with his new line of musical comedy is to begin her engagement of one week only at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday. With her bill will be seven absolutely new acts, including new daylight motion pictures and new operatic content, presented by the enlarged Orpheum orchestra.

SEATTLE BOND ISSUE CARRIES

City to Have Money for Harbor Terminals and Hospital, Say Voters.

SEATTLE, March 7.—Municipal and port district bond issues aggregating $8,725,000 were authorized by the voters in the election Tuesday. The largest proposition was $5,000,000 port bonds for the construction of the Harbor Island terminals, similar to the Bush terminals at Brooklyn, N. Y., and to be leased to a syndicate of New York and Seattle capitalists. In addition, $3,100,000 was voted for other harbor improvements, $800,000 for park work and $125,000 for a municipal tuberculosis hospital.

The charter amendment increasing the mayors salary to $7500 a year was carried, but the one depriving him of the veto power was voted down.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY IS HELD IN MISSOURI

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7.—The first Congressional district preferential Presidential primary of the 1912 campaign is being held today in the fifth Missouri district, which comprises Kansas City and Jackson county.

Republican voters will express their choice among the Presidential candidates and two delegates to the national convention will be instructed for the man they choose.

The primary has attracted wide attention in view of the recent action of Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Theodore Roosevelt campaign manager, in challenging President Taft's managers to a nationwide primary. The names of four candidates—Cummings, Roosevelt, La Follette and Taft—are on the ballot, with a blank line for the name of any other candidate preferred. In connection with the Presidential primary the Republican city primary is being held.

SWISS TO CHALLENGE FOR AVIATION TROPHY

NEW YORK, March 7.—Switzerland will be represented at the aviation meet in this country next fall, when the international cup will be competed for. The formal entry has just been turned over to the Aero Club of America, which has the time for foreign entries expired on March 1. The Swiss letter bore a postmark of February 27, however, and accordingly was allowed by the American governing body.

This makes the fifth foreign country to send a challenge. Only two foreign countries were represented at former meets. Heretofore only England, France and the United States have competed. This year Holland, Belgium and Switzerland will be represented for the first time.

HAZZARD COMING TO STATE. ALBANY, N. Y., March 7.—Henry C. Hazzard, chief of the division of light, heat and power of the State Public Service Commission, has resigned to accept an appointment from the Railroad Commission of California.

CITIZENS RUN
OWN PAWNSHOP

Los Angeles People Tired of Exactions, to Establish 3-Ball System.

LOS ANGELES, March 7.—A pawnshop conducted along philanthropic lines rather than for profit, in order to afford relief from the exactions of many regular pawnbrokers, will be established in Los Angeles by a group of citizens, headed by Dr. John R. Haynes.

Announcement of the venture was made during a session of the police commission, at which that body was urged by City Prosecutor Guy Eddie to begin a campaign against all pawnbrokers who are charging more than 2 per cent a month on loans. The prosecutor declared that practically every pawnbroker in the city was violating the law.

Dr. Haynes stated that his project was to be a sort of a police pawnshop of the government pawn shops of France. No more than 12 per cent per annum interest will be charged, and its proportion for short term loans, or 1 per cent a month.

BRUTAL FOOTPAD
WALKS ON VICTIM

San Franciscan Held Up, Is Knocked Down and Stamped On.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—After treating his victim in a brutal manner as he lay on the sidewalk, Harry Greenberg, an alleged footpad, was arrested by the police early this morning two hours after it is claimed he held up Jacob Grossman of 1207 Laguna street. Grossman was walking along Golden Gate avenue, near Webster street, at 3 a. m., when he was approached by a man, who struck him in the face, following up the blow with a second, the chin, which knocked him to the sidewalk.

As he lay on the pavement the robber placed his foot on his jaw and warned him to keep silent. He then went through Grossman's pockets, taking a purse containing $8.10. Once more he stood upon the prostrate man and then ran off.

Grossman struggled to his feet and cried for help. Policeman Jack Lyons, who was in the neighborhood, together with Officer Wook, took the injured man to the Central Emergency Hospital, where he was treated for a laceration of the head and an abrasion and contusion of the jaw.

The officers then went in search of the culprit and found Greenberg at Third and Mission streets. He was arrested and charged at the Bush-street station with robbery.

HUGHES TO SPEAK

LINCOLN, Neb., March 7.—Justice Charles E. Hughes of the United States Supreme Court will be asked to be the principal speaker at the unveiling of the Abraham Lincoln monument here in May or June. Robert T. Lincoln and General Frederick Grant probably will be asked to attend as guests.

"TIZ Reminds Me of My Barefoot Days!"

"My Feet Never Get Sore, Tired Or Chafed Now, Because I Use TIZ."

"TIZ makes me feel like a boy again. Nothing would hurt my feet in those days, when I ran round barefoot all the other shoes and rubbers and sticks, and now I feel like a boy again."

"What You Think About Gramps?"

"I've tried many things for my poor old feet, but nothing has done them any good. I've tried plasters, powders and salves—and nothing has ever given me the relief that TIZ has. My feet are now strong and vigorous. They never get tired or swollen. I have no corns, callouses or bunions any more—they are boy's feet on an old man."

TIZ gives instant relief and cures all foot troubles. It operates on a new principle, draws out all the poisonous exudations that cause foot troubles. Don't accept a substitute. An elderly man especially, has a mind of his own; so, when you get TIZ, 25 cents a box, hold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter L. Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.

THOUSANDS FAIL TO GET SEATS ON ELEVATED

CHICAGO, March 7.—President B. I. Budd of the Metropolitan Elevated Railroad, last night sent a report to the city council local transportation committee showing that 26,540 patrons of the elevated roads are not provided with seats in elevated trains during the two rush hours morning and evening.

These passengers, familiarly designated "strap-hangers" form more than 35 per cent of the total business of all elevated trains during these hours. The report showed that only 67,880 seats are provided for 104,000 patrons.

The report is made in accordance with a request from the committee, which is trying to arrive at some method of relieving congestion during these hours.

MORTGAGES FARM TO GET SON'S RELEASE

LAWRENCE, Kans., March 7.—By giving bond for $1000 that his 30-year-old mother raised by mortgaging her farm near Lincoln, Neb., H. Howard Hall was released from jail here today.

Hall is charged with having obtained money by pretending to book musical artists for engagements that they never were called upon to fill. The trial is set for May.

FUNERAL OF PIONEER
HELD THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Edmund Worth, a pioneer of this State, who died at a local hospital Tuesday night after an operation, was held this afternoon from the First Baptist Church.

Worth came to this State across the isthmus in 1855 and for many years has lived in Oakland.

He is survived by a widow, Louise Worth, and a son, Edmund L. Worth. He was active in the affairs of the First Baptist Church of this city.

PROMINENT CAPTAIN
SAILS ON LAST-TRIP

SEATTLE, Wash., March 7.—Captain William Gove, 70 years old, master of the tug Wanderer and one of the most widely known mariners on the Pacific coast, dropped dead of heart failure on the bridge of the United States army transport Dix in the harbor here yesterday. He had boarded the Dix to consult with the master of the transport preparatory to taking her in tow. Captain Gove was born at North Edgcomb, Me., and came around the Horn in 1864.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—this quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that

D. D. D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it. Of course all other druggists have D. D. D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute. But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D. D. D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee: If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent. Owl Drug Co., Thirteenth and Broadway, Tenth and Washington, Sixteenth and San Pablo avenue.
